

Sinclair Broadcasting uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

Sinclair Broadcasting is abusing this privilege and right by requiring its outlets to air "Stolen Honor," a blatantly one-sided piece of political propaganda designed to influence the Presidential election. This does not serve the public interest.

The FCC must take action to protect Americans from this hijacking of the political process. Stop Sinclair Broadcasting from broadcasting "Stolen Honor."